IT'S NOT A UNIFORM, IT IS A LIFESTYLE

Mallory Lindsly is a freelance writer and self-started travel blogger. Plaid Shirt Yoga Pants began in April 2017 as a way for Mallory to share her travel adventures, tips, and tricks. After going on a whirlwind number of trips she decided that she wanted to remember and share all of her experiences with her friends and strangers on the internet. Mallory enjoys writing what she's experienced and shares original photographs. Authenticity is key when it comes to Plaid Shirt Yoga Pant's blog and social media platforms. She focuses on handi-accessible travel activities and the New Orleans lifestyle when applicable. Plaid Shirt Yoga Pants is looking to expand travels to all over the world including, but not limited to, Europe, Beach Destinations, and National Parks. She also promotes the staycation mentality in New Orleans.
